The latest reports say Secretary Blaine is very much improved.

Detective D. G. O'Malley, of New Orleans mob notoriety, is said to be under arrest at New Orleans for opening and destroying the mail of Carroll, the puglist.

The Illinois State Board of Agriculture reports a fine prospect for wheat this state, with an unusually large acreage. The fruit crop is expected to be the largest ever known.

Train wreckers threw and spiked down a switch on the Cotton Belt road at Jonesboro, Ark., Saturday night. In the wreck that followed the engineer and fireman were instantly killed.

The Navy Department does not expect to hear from the cruiser Charleston until she reaches Callao, Peru, as she evidently did not touch at Panama. The reported agreement between the United States and the Chilean insurgents for the peaceful surrender of the Itata lacks confirmation by the State Department.

Virginia is to have a woman's college. A real estate syndicate of Lynchburg has offered the Randolph-Macon College twenty acres of land, with $40,000 cash and $60,000 in bonds, provided an endowment fund of $100,000 is raised.

The Illinois Legislature, by unanimous vote, Friday, adopted a resolution recommending for Speaker of the National House of Representatives the Hon. William M. Springer, and urging all the Representatives from the State to use every honorable means to secure his election.

Against Major Wood, the Republican candidate for Governor, we have no word to say personally, but as the representative of a party which has tried to force upon the people a child of infernal hate, the Force Bill, he can certainly expect at the hands of no Democrat anything but the most unqualified opposition. Let this county see to it that it gives against Major Wood the largest Democratic majority ever polled in it.

The Republican State Convention met in Lexington last week and made a ticket for the Democrats to know under. They recommended the new Constitution to the voters of their party, endorsed the infamous Force Bill and commended Harrison's administration. The Republican State ticket is in full as follows: For Governor, A. T. Wood, of Montgomery; for Lieutenant Governor, Henry Houston, of McCracken; for Attorney General, L. J. Crawford, of Campbell; for Auditor, Charles Blanford, of Breckinridge; for Treasurer, Ed Farmer, of Pulaski; for Superintendent of Public Instruction, L. V. Dodge, of Madison; for Register of the Land Office, W. J. A. Rardin, of Greenup; for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, E. R. Blaine, of Fayette. It is a white man's ticket, and the appeals of the colored people are being disregarded.

Ex-Governor John St. John thus delivers himself to a reporter at St. Louis in regard to the Third Party Convention held in Cincinnati last week:

"As a reform convention it is the biggest failure I ever saw. All the meritorious reforms were neglected, and the only thing that distinguished it from the old party conventions was the visionary sub-treasury scheme, which has no foundation either in justice or common sense.

It would be the worst species of class legislation. Such a scheme would bankrupt any Government. As for as the rejection of Prohibition is concerned I have this to say: "No other party convention was ever more subservient to the liquor interests than the one just met at Cincinnati under the guise of reform. The failure to express sympathy for the cause of temperance will drive thousands into the Prohibition ranks. It is simply the birth of a third whisky party."

An excessively silly story is going the rounds of the newspapers touching the nomination of the Hon. John Young Brown for Governor of Kentucky. The fact that the Courier-Journal had never anticipated this by a word in its favor, but had strictly adhered to its rule of exact justice as between Democratic aspirants for office, ought to have been enough at once to discredit a most obvious fiction. Mr. Brown owes this paper nothing. The immunity which the Kentucky Democracy has enjoyed the last twenty years from cliques and faction, springs largely from our uniform abstention from meddling and muddling in the matter of personal rivalries. We have sought to build up no Democrat at the expense of his fellow Democrat, but to recognize and develop genius and merit, wherever they have appeared, and that to the good of the party and the glory of the Commonwealth. We are glad to know, however, that in the return of the Hon. John Young Brown to active public life, we shall have one more jewel to add to the crown of diamonds that already sits so fairly upon Kentucky's brow. Next!—[Courier-Journal.

Some of the Grand Army boys may be interested in the following from Alex B. Pope, A. D. C. Commander, Dep't. Tenn. and Ga. He says: "We have had an epidemic of whooping cough here, (Stewart, Tenn. and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been the only medicine that has done any good." There is no danger from whooping cough, when this remedy is freely given. It completely controls the disease. 50 cent bottles for sale by T. G. Julian.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

The lamb trade is booming in this county. Our principal local dealer, A. J. Rutherford, has already bought 2,500 lambs in this and adjoining counties. He is paying from 5 to 6 cents, according to the lamb. He had the honor of shipping the finest lot of double-deck lambs to Cincinnati last season, and says he will maintain his reputation this year.—[Nicholasville Democrat.

The rule adopted by the Kentucky Horse Breeders' Association, requiring horses not winning one heat in three to be sent to the stables, is meeting with general favor among horsemen.

A Texas stockman says the cattle for exportation from that State this year will fall short of any previous year. The cattle are there, but are being fattened at home instead of being shipped to Northern ranges. The cattle are also being improved by crossing with thoroughbreds and the "long horns" will soon disappear from Texas pastures and be replaced by better stock.

Gillispie, Womack and Stith bought the past week from various parties 180 head of cattle at low figures. They also bought Jack the Ripper, which they claim to be the fastest pacer in the State.

Jo. C. Turley shipped a car load of cattle to Cincinnati Saturday for which he paid from 2½ to 3½ cents.

John A. Thompson & Son delivered to Tabb & Galtskill 50,000 pounds of hemp the past week for which they received the low figure of $4 per hundred.

Over 3,000 immigrants were landed at New York Sunday. Of these 1,248 were Italians, who arrived by a single steamer, ten of them were detained as ex-convicts.

If you want a big thing see Jake Henry and buy some Knoxville real estate while you can get it on the "ground floor"—only a limited amount he has to offer this way.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Bethel.

Mrs. Edie Hazelrigg, of Jeffersonville, returned yesterday from a three weeks visit to friends and relatives here.

Mrs. L. O. Vanarsdell (nee Miss Edna Judy), is very low. There is small hope of her recovery.

Allie Ratliff, who has been very sick, is slowly improving.

W. R. Hazelrigg spent Friday till Monday with his parents and other friends here.

The farmers are complaining of dry weather, and tobacco plants scarce. Some few parties have planted a portion of the ground prepared for tobacco in corn, and others are getting ready to follow their example.

The Mt. Sterling Training School For Boys has its closing exercises in the Southern Presbyterian church Tuesday night, June 2. The exercises will be short, as but four pupils take part. Major Fowler will give a talk on Boys, and Judge French will present the gold medal to the best soldier and the prize clubs to the best club swimmers. Every one interested in higher education is invited to be present. No special invitations sent out. The examinations begin to-morrow and continue one week. The public invited.

Reward.

I will give a reward to anyone finding one single piece of shoddy material in my stock. JOE M. CONROY.

T. G. Julian, the druggist, desires us to publish the following testimonial as he handles the remedy and believes it to be reliable:

I bought a 50 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and applied it to my limbs, which have been afflicted with rheumatism at intervals for one year. At the time I bought the Pain Balm I was unable to walk. I can truthfully say that Pain Balm has completely cured me. R. H. FAIR, Holywood, Kan. Mr. A. B. Cox, the leading druggist at Holywood, vouches for the truth of the above statement.

During the past week normal temperatures prevailed all over agricultural districts east of the Rocky Mountains, and copious showers refreshed sections where drought was threatened. Crop prospects in the South, with the exception of cotton in the South Atlantic States, where rain is still needed, have been immensely improved. Similar encouraging reports are made of fruits and spring and winter wheat.

Louisville Tobacco Market, Furnished by Glover & Durrett—Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2,122 hhds, with receipts for the same period of 942 hhds. Sales on our market since January 1st, amount to 62,587 hhds. Sales on our market of the crop of 1890 up to date 41,846 hhds.

We are able to report another week of very active prices with a higher range of values for all grades of color burley; and we find it necessary to advance quotations on this class of tobacco. The greater part of the State has been favored with showers in the past few days and the setting of the crop has commenced to some extent. The following quotations fairly represent our market for new burley tobacco:

Trash, (dark) or damaged tobacco, $2.00 to 3.50; color trash, $4.00 to 10.00; common lugs not color, $4.00 to 6.00; color lugs, $7.00 to 15.00; common leaf, $8.00 to 12.00; medium to good leaf, $12.00 to 18.00; good to fine lugs, $18.00 to 23.00; select wrappery tobacco, $22.00 to 27.50.

HORSE AND TRACK.

A cheap horse is generally a poor one.

Another fast mare by Kilbuck Tom is reported from Ohio.

Eugenia, the dam of Chimes E., 2:15½, has a foal by Florida.

Whatever there may be in breed, it amounts to nothing without feed.

The yearling trotting record is 2:29½.

The yearling pacing record is 2:38.

Budd Doble has four trotters in his stable with records below 2:17.

Ed. Geers will take charge of C. J. Hamlin's horses about June 1st.

C. W. Williams says he never drove a horse that has as much speed as Al-lerton has this spring.

John Splan is said to have the finest training stable in America at the Doan Brook Farm.

H. Holcomb, of Chicago, has purchased from Indiana parties, for $2,500, the chestnut pacing gelding Harry Jones, 2:19, by Elgin Boy.

Charley Niles, who brought out Roy Wilkes and gave Lillian a mark of 2:14½, is at Menominee, Minn., with a grand lot of Nutwood youngsters, all going well.

The Edgewater stud of Cynthia, the property of the McGibben estate, has been purchased by a stock company for $60,000.

It is an easy matter to save five dollars now in the difference in the service fees of two stallions and lose fifty or a hundred dollars when the produce is at a marketable age.

Eminence, 2:18½, belonging to the Kalamazoo Farm, Kalamazoo, Mich., was shipped on the 25th ult., by American express, to Waterville, Me., to be bred to Nelson, 2:10½.

Robert McGregor, 2:17½, has the fastest record of any stallion in the stud in the state of New York. Village Farm held this mark of honor until the death of Prince Regent, 2:10½.

Electioneer put in 32:30 performers last week. He now has more trotters than any other stallion that ever lived. He has now 64 trotters. Geo. Wilkes stands second, having 71 in the list, but only 63 trotters.

C. A. Fennell, Harrodsburg, Ky., has sold to L. Hudson & Son his four-year-old gray mare by Orion, dam by Mambrino Columbus, for $1,500. The mare is quite a trotter, and is expected to beat 2:30 this year.

Vic H., 2:18, will make it warm for a few Eastern horses in the 2:18 class, should George Starr bring her East and it is almost certain that she will accompany Margaret S., and Direct across the continent next month.

B. York has Thornless, 2:16½, and the balance of his stable at Minneapolis. The Dauntless gelding is reported good which means a winning when he hits a track that does not hurt his feet.

At Village Farm Friday the bay mare Rosemeade foaled a bay filly by Prince Regent, 2:16½. Rosemeade is by Alcazar, son of Sultan and Minnehaha, out of Astrionne, full sister to Iona, 2:17½, by Alcione, second dam Jessie Pepper. The filly is one of the best bred on Village Farm, as she traces twice to Alma Mater, twice to Jessie Pepper, and once to Minnehaha.

Stamboul will be out for the stallion record this season, his stud duties ceasing in May, when he will be placed in the trainer's hands. Stamboul has been on the turf every year since he was two years old and he has never as yet failed to lower his record each succeeding season. It would seem that his chances are as good as any of them.

Alicia, 2:30, (full sister to Alcione and Alcantara) belonging to H. L. & F. D. Stout, of Dubuque, Ia., died recently while foaling a colt by Nutwood. The Messrs. Stout lose at least $25,000 by this mare and colt's death as they would have brought that easily. They refused $15,000 for the mare two years ago.

A reputation for breeding good horses is valuable to any man, and the way to acquire it is to begin now if you have not already done so. If you can get your neighbors to join in the enterprise it is bound to benefit the whole community and every member thereof in the course of a few years. Buyers will go where they know they can get what they want, and a community establishing a reputation for good horses—draft, coach or trotting—will never be troubled with surplus stock.

All the sensational trotters of the past season, whose breeding is traced carry the blood of Hambletonian. Clay blood is also a prominent factor as Stamboul, Allerton, and Margaret S. have it. Morgan is well represented in Nelson, American Star in Margaret S., Homestake, Nancy Hanks, Alabaster, and Freedom; Mambrino Chief in Margaret S., Allerton, Alabaster and Freedom; Pilot Jr., in Stamboul, Alabaster and Freedom. All of the above performers trace two or more times to Mambletonian with the exception of Nelson and Margaret S.

Bunnell Bros., Colfax, W. T., have laid the foundations of an immense stock farm there, to surpass anything of the kind in the Northwest, and fairly rival Palo Alto, Rancho del Paso, or any of the famous California ranches. One million of dollars is to be invested including 2,000 acres of land, a kite-shaped mile track and elegant stables for the 175 horses on the place. In the construction of which 100,000 feet of California fir and red wood will be utilized. Bunnell Bros., the original proprietors, recently sold a one-half interest to W. S. Chapman, of San Francisco, the well known bonanza gold mine owner, and father-in-law of Jesse R. Grant. The entire proceeds of the sale of this one-half interest are to be turned into improvements on the farm. It is the intention of Mr. Chapman, when the farm is in thorough running order, to deed his entire interest to his daughter, Mrs. Jesse Grant, and thus give this stock farm, destined to be the most extensive and most famous in the Northwest, as it is practically the pioneer enterprise of its kind, a national interest and reputation at the very outset.

A good story is told of Oliver Walton, who in his day was the greatest dealer of good horses near Boston. On one occasion he went into Maine and bought an extra good horse for $300. The old farmer was one of the niggardly kind (we hope there are none there now) and he says: "How are you going to lead the horse away?" With that halter which is on him, to be sure," said the elder Walton, as he was busy counting out the money for the horse. "No, sir," said the farmer, "the halter don't go with the horse, it belongs to me. I did not sell you that." "What, not let me have a halter after I have given you your price for the horse?" said old Oliver, a little surprised. "What do you want for it?" "A dollar, sir," said the farmer. "All right, said Walton, "here is the dollar, I want the halter." He put the rest of the money in his pocket, stepped quickly to the horse's head and remarked, "I will take the halter, but I guess I will not take the horse." He took off the halter and let the horse go loose. The farmer probably had many a long day in which to repent of his sharpness.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a Man, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Manuscript Account of the Drouth in 1834.

Mr. David Chenault, Sr., who now resides in the suburbs of Richmond, has a well-preserved manuscript left by his grand-parents, which tells of a drouth in Madison county, that few persons now recall. Mr. Chenault's grand-father was a Baptist minister, and lived at Cane Spring church, near the mouth of Red river, where his son, the late Cabell Chenault, resided, and near which Mr. Chenault himself lived until recently.

It would have been well had many others left similar manuscripts for posterity.

We quote the paper in full: "An account of the spring season in the year 1834—the third Monday or Tuesday in April, there was a small rain—not a good cabbage season; and on the 26th and 27th days of April, there was a severe killing frost that bit all the timber, killed the leaves entirely, and some of the timber, and the corn and beans almost universally. This was followed by a severe drouth; and in about two or three weeks there fell a severe frost five nights hands running; and we were in hopes it would rain, but none came; and of all the gloomy prospects I ever saw, it excelled all; and continued dry with cold, north winds. The dust was never properly laid; nor nothing like a cabbage season until the 15th and 16th days of June. Then our corn was not above the cloaks, and a great deal of it in the ground. Some perished so that it never came up, and where it was best, I think but little over half stood. Flax and oats not one-half as high as common. This we think correct."

"DAVID AND NANCY CHENAULT." "This we leave to our children."

Their children were the late Cabell and Harvey Chenault, this county; Anderson and Tandy Chenault, deceased, Montgomery county; Mrs. H. C. Broadbent, this place, formerly Mrs. Alexander Tibble; and David Chenault, deceased, of Tennessee.

Among the reverend gentlemen's papers was found the following, which is carefully preserved, and is neat and white to this day:

"Received, July 7th, 1803, of Mr. David Chenault, One, Five and Six, in full of account."

"THOMAS C. HOWARD."

"£1, 5s, 6d."

Mr. Howard was, for many years, a prosperous merchant, and built the Branton residence on Third street.—Richmond Register.
